SnowdropKCS Training & Development Software

Keeping your people engaged and performing to their full potential is one of the toughest challenges facing organisations today.

From identifying development needs with appraisal and assessment management, through to administering the courses and events that address them, SnowdropKCS Training & Development software has all the tools you need to meet your development challenges with confidence.

It's right for everyone

Whether you're a manufacturer concerned about meeting health and safety obligations, a legal firm wanting to track continual professional development, or a council wanting to meet government training targets, the training & development software can help you.

The training & development solution includes an extensive range of features that help you easily administer and manage your people's development. Including:

- Course and event administration
- Event evaluation
- Training and venue details
- Waiting lists, including multiple bookings
- Resource bookings
- Bulk training history updates
- Performance reviews
- Performance assessments
- Job profiling
- Flexible user-defined skills frameworks
- Managing training budgets and controlling costs
- Recording Continual Professional Development hours and National Vocational Qualifications
- Recording business objectives underpinning company development

The training & development module works well on its own, but offers even greater
